Victoria Chu Pao is president of Platts, the global energy industry information leader. Platts enables energy markets through independent industry news, price benchmarks, etc. The company covers the oil, natural gas, electricity, nuclear power, coal, carbon emissions, shipping, petrochemical, risk, and metals markets through real-time news and price assessments, publications, conferences, and analytical tools and services. Platts is a division of the McGraw-Hill Companies.

As president since 2005, Ms. Pao is responsible for 600 employees; two-thirds work outside of the United States, in 17 offices serving 150 countries. Focusing on brand recognition, product innovation and e-solutions, Ms. Pao has worked to strengthen Platts' global market position especially within international arenas like China, the Middle East, and Russia. Platts has extended its century-long price benchmark expertise to new focus markets such as steel, carbon emissions, liquified natural gas, and risk.

Ms. Pao's accomplishments have been recognized at the McGraw-Hill Companies, which she joined in 1997, through numerous Corporate Achievement Awards and as a recipient of the 2004 Excellence in Leadership Award. In addition, Ms. Pao was honored as a member of the YWCA-NYC Academy of Women Leaders in 2004. In 2006, she was the recipient of the annual Corporate Leadership Award from Asian Women in Business.

Ms. Pao regularly speaks at international industry conferences and universities on topics such as energy market outlook, the importance of market transparency, and business globalization.

Ms. Pao holds a B.A. in Economics and East Asian Studies from Harvard University, and an M.B.A. in Marketing and Finance from New York University's Stern School of Business.
